

THE HONORABLE JAMES L. ROBERT

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

LEONARDO, S.P.A., an Italian company,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE BOEING COMPANY, a Delaware corporation,

Defendant.

No. 2:19-cv-2082

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, private, or export-controlled information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential or export-controlled treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential or export-controlled information under seal. It is explicitly intended to also protect materials produced by a third-party pursuant to a subpoena issued in this matter.

2. “CONFIDENTIAL” AND “EXPORT-CONTROLLED” MATERIAL

“Confidential Material”<sup>1</sup> shall refer to confidential, proprietary engineering materials (including those that disclose proprietary intellectual property); materials incorporating confidential, non-public manufacturing and financial data; materials disclosing confidential or sensitive business practices, plans, ideas, evaluations, discussions or strategies (e.g., divestitures, mergers, acquisitions, and strategies or negotiations related to same); and non-public information concerning product pricing, suppliers, airline customers, and other third parties.

As a subset of Confidential Material, “Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material” (referred to herein as “AEO Material”) shall refer to documents containing highly sensitive information that the producing party believes in good faith could cause it significant harm if revealed to an employee of the receiving party. AEO Material shall not include any information that has been made public, provided that such public disclosure was not made unlawfully, inadvertently, or otherwise through the fault of the receiving party. AEO Material also shall not include information previously provided to the receiving party in such cases where the producing party did not limit access to or disclosure of such information consistent with the terms of paragraph 4.2(b) of this agreement.

“Export-Controlled Material” shall include information that is subject to the requirements of the Export Administration Regulations (“EAR”), 15 C.F.R. §§ 730.1, et seq., and/or the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (“ITAR”), 22 C.F.R. §§ 120.0, et seq. Such material may be contained in documents that a party furnishes in this case related to dual use commodities, technology, software, or defense articles. Although the parties shall use their best efforts to designate such information as “Export-Controlled Material” in accordance with this Order, information subject to EAR and ITAR shall at all times remain “Export-Controlled Material” regardless of whether such designation is made, in accordance with federal law.

<sup>1</sup> The parties agree to a two-tier Protective Order that allows both “Confidential” and “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” designations, each having different disclosure requirements. All subsequent references to “Confidential Material” encompass both tiers unless the distinction between them is specifically addressed.

1     3.     SCOPE

2             3.1     General Scope. The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only 3 Confidential and Export-Controlled Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information 4 copied or extracted from Confidential or Export-Controlled Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, 5 summaries, or compilations of Confidential or Export-Controlled Material; and (3) any testimony, 6 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal Confidential or Export-7 Controlled Material. However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover 8 information that is in the public domain or legitimately becomes part of the public domain through 9 trial or otherwise.

10            3.2.     Foreign Data Privacy Laws. Nothing in this agreement is intended to prevent either 11 party from complying with the requirements of a foreign country's data privacy laws, e.g., the 12 European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (EU) 2016/679. If the producing 13 party identifies a particular discovery request that the producing party claims would call for 14 production of documents in violation of a foreign data privacy law, the parties agree to meet and 15 confer to address any such objection.

16     4.     ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

17            4.1     Basic Principles. A receiving party may use Confidential Material that is disclosed 18 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 19 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential Material may be disclosed only to 20 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential 21 Material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner 22 that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

23            4.2     Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 24 by the Court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any 25 Confidential Material only to:
 26

1 (a) the receiving party's outside counsel in this action, as well as employees of 2 counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

3 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel and their 4 paralegal or other support staff) of the receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary 5 for this litigation, unless a particular document or material produced is for Attorney's Eyes Only 6 and is so designated, in which case disclosure is limited to: (i) outside counsel as defined in Section 7 4.2(a), and (ii) a limited group of in-house counsel that do not participate in competitive decision-8 making for issues relating to the other party. Each party shall limit access to AEO Materials to no 9 more than four (4) attorneys and three (3) legal assistants (or other support staff) on its in-house 10 counsel team at any given time during the pendency of this litigation, subject to the provisions of 11 this paragraph. The names of in-house attorneys and legal assistants given access to AEO Materials 12 shall be disclosed to the other party and may be revised by the receiving party from time to time 13 as necessary. Any in-house attorney or assistant being removed from access must transfer all AEO 14 Materials in his or her possession to another person authorized to maintain such access under this 15 paragraph;

16 (c) experts and consultants (and their employees) to whom disclosure is 17 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and 18 Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A) and, in the case of AEO Materials, no more than four (4) 19 experts and consultants who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" 20 (Exhibit A); provided, however, that such experts and consultants (and their employees) shall not 21 include those that work on behalf of a competitor of either party;

22 (d) the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters and their staff, subject to 23 Section 4.3 below;

24 (e) copy or imaging services or e-discovery vendors (and their employees) 25 retained by counsel to assist in the duplication and processing of confidential material, provided 26 that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service instructs the service not to disclose

1 any Confidential Material to third parties and to return or destroy all originals and copies of any 2 Confidential Material as soon as reasonably practicable;

3 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 4 reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” 5 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the Court. Witnesses 6 at deposition may not be shown AEO Material of the designating party without prior approval of 7 the designating party, unless the witness falls into subsection (g) below. Pages of transcribed 8 deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that are designated Confidential Material may not 9 be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this agreement;

10 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 11 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

12 (h) alternative dispute resolution personnel (e.g., a mediator) who have signed 13 the “Acknowledgement and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A) or otherwise executed an 14 acceptable confidentiality agreement; and 15 (i) each party’s insurer(s), if necessary to secure insurance coverage for a 16 judgment entered in this action.

17 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing Confidential Material or discussing or 18 referencing such material in Court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party, 19 in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating party will 20 remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion 21 to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the 22 designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue, 23 and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to sealing 24 the information at issue. If coordination prior to filing is not feasible, the filing party shall file any 25 Confidential Material under seal, without prejudice to the filing party’s right to object to the 26 designation of such material. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed

1 and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the Court to file material 2 under seal. A party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must satisfy the 3 requirements of Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion to seal.
 4 Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with 5 the strong presumption of public access to the Court's files.

6 5. ACCESS TO AND USE OF EXPORT-CONTROLLED MATERIAL

7 5.1 Basic Principles. The parties have a responsibility to ensure that Export-Controlled 8 Material in their possession, custody or control is used in accordance with U.S. law, including 9 EAR, 15 C.F.R. §§ 730.0, et seq. and/or ITAR, 22 C.F.R. §§120.1, et seq. To prevent unauthorized 10 use of Export-Controlled Material, the parties agree to follow the procedure outlined in this Order.

11 5.2 Disclosure of Export-Controlled Material. Counsel or another individual authorized 12 to received Export-Controlled Material pursuant to the Protective Order will not disclose, export, 13 or transfer, in any manner, Export-Controlled Material to any foreign person except as permitted 14 by U.S. law, and will not transport any such document outside of U.S. territory, without prior 15 written approval of the Bureau of Industry and Security, the United States Department of State, or 16 other appropriate U.S. government department or agency except as permitted by U.S. law. Use or 17 access outside of the U.S. or by Non-U.S. persons within the U.S. may require a license from the 18 U.S. Department of State in accordance with ITAR or from the U.S. Department of Commerce in 19 accordance with the EAR. The party producing the documents accepts no liability on behalf of the 20 recipient for the procurement of or expense of such license, or in the event the recipient discloses 21 controlled information or violates the EAR or ITAR. Diversion of any technical data subject to the 22 ITAR or EAR to any (i) person, (ii) entity, (iii) country or (iv) any entity located or incorporated 23 in a country, that is on any denied party list or list of sanctioned countries, pursuant to either the 24 EAR, ITAR or any regulations and orders administered by the Treasury Department's Office of 25 Foreign Assets Control Regulations (31 CFR Chapter V) is prohibited.
 26

1           5.3     Access to Export-Controlled Material. The parties have a responsibility to ensure 2 that access to Export-Controlled Material in their possession, custody or control is restricted to 3 authorized persons in accordance with U.S. law, including EAR, 15 C.F.R. §§ 730.0, et seq. and/or 4 ITAR, 22 C.F.R. §§120.1, et seq., including but not limited to disclosure to outside counsel, 5 experts, consultants, and any staff supporting the same. To prevent unauthorized access of Export-6 Controlled Material, the parties agree to follow the procedure outlined in this paragraph.

7           (a)     All physical documents containing Export-Controlled Material shall be 8 placed in a secure file or room with access limited to those persons identified in Paragraph 4.2 of 9 the Protective Order who are U.S. Persons.

10          (b)     If documents containing Export-Controlled Material are scanned and stored 11 in a computer or loaded to a document review platform or software, access to such electronic files
 12 shall be restricted and limited to those persons identified in Paragraph 4.2 of the Protective Order 13 who are U.S. Persons.

14          5.4     Filing Export-Controlled Information. Before filing Export-Controlled Material or 15 discussing or referencing such material in Court filings, the filing party shall confer with the 16 designating party, in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the 17 designating party will remove the Export-Controlled designation, whether the document can be 18 redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the 19 meet and confer process, the designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific 20 Export-Controlled Material at issue, and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to 21 seal, along with any objection to sealing the information at issue. If coordination prior to filing is 22 not feasible, the filing party is obligated to file any Export-Controlled Material under seal. Local 23 Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be 24 applied when a party seeks permission from the Court to file material under seal. A party who 25 seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must satisfy the requirements of Local Civil 26 Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion to seal. Failure to satisfy this

1 requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with the strong 2 presumption of public access to the Court's files.

3 6. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

4 6.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party 5 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take 6 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate 7 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 8 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the 9 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 10 unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

11 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 12 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 13 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses 14 and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

15 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for 16 protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other parties 17 that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

18 If material has not been previously designated by the producing party or non-party as 19 Confidential or Export-Controlled Material, then, where appropriate, the receiving party may make 20 such designations. The making of such designations in the litigation does not relate back to the 21 parties' pre-litigation designation or disclosure of material, if any.

22 6.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 23 agreement (see, e.g., section 6.2(b) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, disclosure or 24 discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must be clearly so designated 25 before or when the material is disclosed or produced.
26

1 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and 2 deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), 3 the designating party must affix the respective designation (i.e., “CONFIDENTIAL,” 4 “CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” or “EXPORT-CONTROLLED”) to each 5 page that contains Confidential or Export-Controlled Material.

6 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties 7 and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial 8 proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony 9 after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within twenty-one (21) days after 10 receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate or re-designate 11 portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as Confidential Material or Export-Controlled 12 Material, and the non-designating party may share information about the deposition consistent 13 with the access restrictions in Sections 4 and 5. No person except those permitted access to 14 Confidential or Export-Controlled Information by this Order can attend depositions when 15 Confidential or Export-Controlled Information is disclosed. If a party or non-party desires to 16 protect Confidential or Export-Controlled information at trial, the issue should be addressed during 17 the pre-trial conference.

18 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place 19 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the 20 appropriate designation (i.e., “CONFIDENTIAL,” “CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES 21 ONLY,” or “EXPORT-CONTROLLED”). If only a portion or portions of the information or item 22 warrant protection, the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected 23 portion(s).

24 6.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected upon notice, an inadvertent 25 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating 26 party’s right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction

1 of a designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is 2 treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement from that point forward.

3 7. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY AND EXPORT-CONTROLLED 4 DESIGNATIONS

5 7.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a Confidential or 6 Export-Controlled designation at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's 7 Confidential or Export-Controlled designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial 8 unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a 9 party does not waive its right to challenge a Confidential or Export-Controlled designation by 10 electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed. The parties 11 agree to promptly address any request for re-designations.

12 7.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute 13 regarding Confidential or Export-Controlled designations without Court involvement. Any motion 14 regarding Confidential or Export-Controlled designations or for a protective order must include a 15 certification, in the motion or in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good 16 faith meet and confer conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute 17 without Court action. The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the 18 conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

19 7.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without Court 20 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality or export-21 control protections under Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if 22 applicable). The burden of persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party.
 23 Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose 24 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions.
 25 All parties shall continue to maintain the material in question as Confidential or Export-Controlled 26 until the Court rules on the challenge.

1 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER 2 LITIGATION

3 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels 4 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as Confidential Material or Export-5 Controlled Material, that party must:

6 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 7 subpoena or court order to allow the designating party time to intervene to protect its materials if 8 needed;

9 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 10 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 11 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and 12 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 13 the designating party whose Confidential or Export-Controlled Material may be affected.

14 9. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

15 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Confidential 16 or Export-Controlled Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 17 agreement, the receiving party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the 18 unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected 19 material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the 20 terms of this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the “Acknowledgment 21 and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

22 10. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED 23 MATERIAL

24 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 25 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 26 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B), with the

1 exception that the parties agree the receiving party will immediately destroy or return (not 2 sequester) all copies of the inadvertently produced material upon notice from the producing party.
 3 This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery
 4 order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree 5 to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

6 11. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

7 Within a reasonable time<sup>2</sup> after the termination of this action, including all appeals and 8 resolution of any motions arising out of this proceeding relating to third parties still pending after 9 resolution of the action, each receiving party must return or certify the destruction of all 10 Confidential and Export-Controlled Material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts 11 and summaries thereof. Upon request of the party who produced or supplied the Confidential or 12 Export-Controlled Material, all counsel of record who received such materials shall certify 13 compliance herewith and shall deliver the same to counsel for the party who produced or supplied 14 the Confidential or Export-Controlled Material.

15 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain, and shall not be obligated to 16 return or destroy, all documents filed with the Court or submitted to a mediator, trial, deposition, 17 and hearing transcripts, correspondence (including email correspondence and attachments), 18 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, such as drafts of pleadings, 19 internal memos, email communications internally or with clients regarding the case, and consultant 20 and expert work product, even if such materials contain Confidential Material or Export-21 Controlled Material. Counsel will store such protected materials in the same manner as it handles 22 its own confidential materials in the ordinary course of business and will take all reasonable 23 measures to prevent inadvertent dissemination of such materials. The confidentiality obligations 24 imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a designating party agrees otherwise in 25 writing or a court orders otherwise.

26 _____
<sup>2</sup> The parties may mutually agree to a deadline for compliance with Section 11 of this protective order.

EXHIBIT AACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

I, _____ [print or type full name], declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington on [date] in the case of Leonardo, S.p.A. v. The Boeing Company (W.D. Wa. Case No. 19-cv-2082). I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Order. As part of this obligation, I solemnly promise that I will not knowingly disclose, export, or transfer, in any manner, any Export-Controlled Material to any non-U.S. Person, and will not transport or cause to be transported any Export-Controlled Material outside the territory of the United States, without prior written approval of the Bureau of Industry and Security, United States Department of State, or other appropriate U.S. government department or agency. I understand that U.S. laws and regulations contain provisions for civil fines and administrative penalties for violation of any provision of the Export Administration Regulations or International Traffic in Arms Regulations and for criminal fines and/or imprisonment for the willful violation of these laws.

1 I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the 2 Western District of Washington for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulated Protective 3 Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action.
